DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 4, 5, 7, 10-12, and 14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 06/04/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-3, 6, 8, 9 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ueng USP 5957002 in view of Rivin USP 4184380.

Re claims 1-9 Ueng discloses a(n):

- Operator actuating member (10)
- Positioning mechanism coupled to the operator actuating member (see figure 1) including:
  - First member and second members (43,20)
- Ratchet member (43)
- Pawl member (20)
- Winding element (52)

But does not disclose a buffering member that is a coating.

Rivin teaches buffering members (18) that are coatings for the purpose of reducing noise, vibration and wear and reduced sensitivity to distortions in gear alignment (Column 2, lines 35-37).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine the setup of Ueng and employ a buffering element that is a coating, as taught by Rivin, for the purpose of reducing noise, vibration and wear and reduced sensitivity to distortions in gear alignment (Column 2, lines 35-37).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 02/20/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues "The Ueng patent and the Kobayashi patent do not have meshing gear teeth and applying a buffer member to them as suggested in the Office Action would not solve the problem noted in the Rivin patent. Under U.S. patent law that the mere fact that the prior art can be modified does not make the modification obvious, unless the prior art suggests the desirability of the modification. Accordingly, the prior art of record lacks any suggestion or expectation of success by adding the buffer member of the Rivin patent to ratchet member 43 of the Ueng patent to create the Applicant's unique arrangement".

In response, Ueng discloses teeth 430. Rivin discloses a coating for teeth for the purpose of reducing noise (Column 2, lines 35-37). Additionally, applicants' invention discloses a coating for the purposes of reducing audible noise (Paragraph 0009). Because the disclosure of Rivin solves the same problem (reducing noise) and provides a clear suggestion to combine (reducing noise), the combination is proper.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

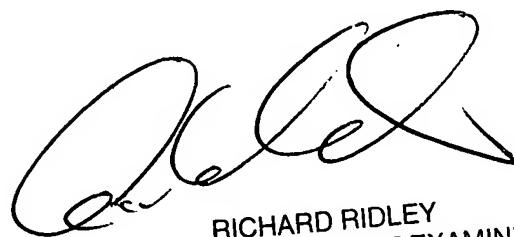

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
